About K. K. Wagh Education Society

K. K. Wagh Education Society is a leading educational trust in Nashik District. It was established in 1970 by the visionary leader Late Padmashree Karmaveer Kakasaheb Wagh. He realized the importance of education for upliftment of rural masses and started with a school in Niphad Tahasil. The education society later on received a land of 23 acres from the well-known Philanthropist Late Ratansey Haridas Udesi (Kakuseth) of Hansaraj Surji Charitable Trust, Nashik. It was utilized by K. K. Wagh Education Society to establish an ideal technical campus known as 'Hirabai Haridas Vidyanagari'.

K. K. Wagh Education Society is the premier Educational Institute in Nashik District. A small sapling planted by Karmaveer Kakasaheb Wagh has grown into a full tree with 31 institutes having over 20,000 students engaged in studies from K.G. to Ph.D. in various fields. There are over 1,800 dedicated employees following the Indian ethics and striving hard towards perfection and excellence.
